POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

Dear Sirs or Madame,

I understand that there is a window of time for the public to comment on the 10 year plan of changes that the current Post Master General is proposing.

No, do not accept his plan. He has already caused much delay in our mail service. To be honest, he should be charged with malicious destruction of expensive and functional postal sorting equipment.

I do hope that when all the new positions of the Regulatory Commission are filled, that Mr. LaJoy will be replaced with a person knowledgeable in how to run the US Postal System.

Sincerely,

Ann S, Peek
